Kearney (Appellant) v Chief Constable of Hampshire Police (Respondent) UKSC 2020/0046 Neutral Citation No: [2019] EWCA Civ 1841	Lord Kerr Lord Sales Lord Leggatt	Refused 30 July 2020	Permission to appeal be refused. The Panel considered that a point of law of public general importance arose in this case. Moreover, in light of the decision in Deborah McGuinness, it considered that the Court of Appeal was arguably in error on the issue of ‘criminal cause or matter’.

			However, having regard to the reasons given by the High Court judge for refusing to give permission for judicial review, which are compelling and in relation to which the Appellant has not identified any good grounds for a challenge on appeal, the Panel decided that this was not a case in which permission should be given.
Simawi (AP) (Appellant) v Mayor and Burgesses of the London Borough of Haringey and another (Respondents) UKSC 2020/0067 Neutral Citation No: [2019] EWCA Civ 1770	Lord Kerr Lord Sales Lord Leggatt	Refused 30 July 2020	Permission to appeal be refused. A point of law of general importance is involved but the decisions of the lower courts, particularly on the question of justification make this an unsuitable case for the grant of permission.

The principal point of law which the Appellants seek to advance does not arise on the facts of this case.
